Volume 17 Issue 62 – Tuesday 21st October 2008

– Editor: June Bragg

You could probably hear Roy give a cheer when Pres Jim returned to take up the reins again after 9 weeks absence. Welcome back Jim & Sandy.

Pres Jim & members thank Roy for doing a great job while Jim was away.

Apologies were received from Ashley and Helen

Please notify Jim if you will not be attending a meeting as it assists with catering.

Joker jackpot $113 – Pres Jim selected Jes' ticket but after Roy cut the deck Jes could only find the seven of spades.

Have you paid your 2008-9 fees yet??? If not why not???

Pres Jim will now follow up on those Rotarians still behind with their fees for 2008-9.

If you are one of the members, be prepared for a phone call.

To save further embarrassment you could pay your fees.

Contact June on 0418 633 653 or Roy (Secretary) 0418-448544 with any queries.

Rotary Youth driver Awareness (RYDA) _____ Very important and Urgent

Jes is looking for 6 volunteers to assist with supervision of St John's park high School Students at RYDA on Wednesday 29th October. Please contact Jes if you can assist.

Pride of Workmanship (POW)

Do you know anyone you could nominate in your company or elsewhere for a POW Award??? If yes contact Renzo now. Please mark Wednesday 5th November in your diaries. It would be good to have a number of Rotarians, family & friends present at this event to congratulate the nominees of their achievements. Why not take your partner out for dinner to Smithfield RSL (I'm sure they would appreciate not having to cook for a night). Please let Renzo know how many of you are attending and support him this his first year as Vocational Director.

District Governor's Visit

DG Paul Ericson will be having his official visit to our Club on Tuesday 11th November. Please mark this date in your diaries & make every effort to attend. If you haven't attended a meeting in a while this would be an excellent one to start with.

Sergeant at Arms Alan's pen was going like wildfire today especially when Brian mentioned the interesting Item on the 60 Minutes Program regarding pornography. All who contributed in anyway to the discussion was fined (including yours truly).

Interested in being the Interlink Editor for November? Let Pres Jim know...

Another true story from Roy....

"Nice threads, man," commented Bill when Roy showed up one day in a snappy new suit. "Where'd you pick 'em up?"

Roy beamed. "Roxanne got them for me. Pretty sharp, huh?"

"I'll say. What was the occasion?"

"Got me," admitted Roy with a cheerful shrug. "I came home from work early the other day and there they were, hanging over the chair in the bedroom."

A true story from Anne Slattery

Housework was a woman's job, but one evening a few years ago, Anne arrived home from work to find the children bathed, one load of laundry in the washer and another in the dryer. Dinner was on the stove, and the table set. She was astonished!

It turns out that Keiran had read an article that said, "Wives who work full-time and had to do their own housework were too tired to have sex."

The next day, Anne told her office friends all about it. "We had a great dinner, Keiran even cleaned up the kitchen. He helped the kids do their homework, folded all the laundry and put it away. I really enjoyed the evening."

'But what about afterwards?' asked her friends. "Oh, that" said Anne "Keiran was too tired".

Could be a true story....

Barry returned from a doctor's visit one day and told his wife Betty that the doctor said he only had 24 hours to live.

Wiping away her tears, he asked her to make love with him. Of course she agreed and they made passionate love.

Six hours later, Barry went to her again, and said, "Honey, now I only have 18 hours left to live maybe we could make love again?" Betty agreed and again they made love.

Later, Barry was getting into bed when he realized he now had only eight hours of life left. He touched Betty's shoulder and said, "Honey? Please? Just one more time before I die." She agreed, then afterward she rolled over and fell asleep.

Barry, however, heard the clock ticking in his head, and he tossed and turned until he was down to only four more hours. He tapped his wife on the shoulder to wake her up. "Honey, I only have four hours left! Could we...?"

His wife sat up abruptly, turned to him and said, "Listen Barry, I have to get up in the morning! You don't."

Question: What is the difference between a pigeon and a merchant banker?

Answer: A pigeon can still put a deposit on a Ferrari.
